

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Jail Break.

A little excitement was created last evening at the County Jail, by the escape of four prisoners. Being Sunday evening the boys thought that they would examine the condition of the south wall of the jail. As all could not take a hand in the examination several quietly seated themselves at the dining table, were beguiling a few hours away in the harmless amusement of card playing. The Jailor returned from supper, looked in at his innocents, and returned to the Sheriff's office. About 7:30 Mr. Young heard the jail door rattle, and trusty Dan call out that several prisoners were escaping. The news spread like wild-fire, and pistols and excited search was the sole order of the night. The Sheriff force and constabulary en rapport were on the qui vive. The telegraph operator was kept busy and horse flesh suffered. It was soon ascertained that parties indicted by the last Grand Jury, had escaped. It seems that with two pieces of iron one piece very thin and some six or eight inches long, the other about two and a half feet long and about the size of a buggy tire, the bricks were easily loosened and removed. The mortar is of very poor material, composed principally of sand. The wall is some twenty inches thick and consists alone of brick, poorly held together by most common mortar and plastered on the inside. The prisoners very soon made a hole in the south wall under the first window. Through this opening Ah Sam, Ah Fong, Ah Ham and John Laffin effected their escape. Ah Sam and Ah Fong had been indicted for grand larceny committed in Wadsworth, Ah Ham of burglary at Franktown, and John Laffin, of arson committed in Reno. Sam and Fong have been captured and placed in a cell. One was captured by the nightwatch at the Huffaker wood dump. The fellow came near being turned loose, but Wm. Ross searched the Celestial refuge and found on his person the indictment. Ah said that he had kept the indictment because "maybe so he get in trouble sometime that help him." The other Chinaman was taken by Deputy Sheriff Ike Chamberlain and Officer Thomas at Geo. Andrews', near Mayberry's. Ah Han, who has not been captured, is a small Chinaman. John Laffin is an American, about 5 feet 10 inches in height; has black hair, black whiskers and black eyes; weighs 180 pounds, and is about 31 years of age. He has worked as a section hand on the C. P. R. R. on nearly every railroad section between this place and Sacramento. Sheriff Lamb and force are out in search of the missing prisoners, and it is thought will capture them within a day or two. Our jail is really a very poor one. Any prisoner can escape from it in less than half an hour's time. In its present condition all criminals above petty larceny thieves must be kept in a cell or fettered in order to insure their remaining in custody.

SPRING STYLES.—Attention to another column will show that Fred Kolster has an eye to business, and does not propose that Reno's gentlemen shall forget the styles. He has just received from the East the fashion plates for Spring and Summer of 1878, and, what is better, knows how to follow them. We have tried Kolster and can affirm that he can pad your form to the desired proportion with less trouble than any man in town. Give him a call and read his ad.

W. J. Luke has recently built a large frame building on Fourth street adjoining his blacksmith shop. This building is now used as a paint shop and wagon and carriage room. Luke is turning out good work as will be seen by visiting his new quarters. He has just finished a four-horse wagon, spring wagon and a buggy that reflects credit to the man.

PERSONAL.—That genial dairyman, J. L. Crow, of Red Clover Valley, is tarrying a few days in our midst. He says there is three feet of snow in Red Clover Valley and about 16 inches of the beautiful in Sierra Valley. The road he describes as good except between town and the hill this side of the Brooklyn mine. He believes the northern country will yield rich returns next Summer and fall.

District Court will be in session again next Wednesday.

Jottings.

The case of J. W. Rover is before the Board of Pardons, but up to four o'clock his sentence had not been commuted.

Mr. C. Mallard late State temperance lecturer of California, will deliver a temperance lecture this evening at the Methodist Church.

Lyceum meeting to-morrow evening. Subject for discussion: "The Army Bill, viz: To Increase the Army to 50,000 Men."

Pierce Evans has the invitations to the Au Fait party.

No news in the Justice Court. Richardson has a sewing machine in his office, from which we would argue that Police Court business is so dull that he intends taking in plain sewing.

If your supply of fresh eggs runs short, call at Manning & Duck's. Forty cents per dozen.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM COWHIDE.—This afternoon about 3 o'clock one of our ranchers was driving up Plaza street, when the noise of a locomotive blowing off steam frightened his team. When opposite the China wash-house, next to the Pacific Hotel, a devout Chinaman, remembering that it was New Year, threw out his last bunch of firecrackers to frighten away the evil spirit. He frightened the horses instead, and they ran away. The farmer got his steeds under control at last, and having tied them to a post, took his buggy whip and returned to castigate the pig-tail. Upon arriving, however, he was assured that John "no aab," and although a large crowd had assembled to witness the matinee, the whip was returned to its socket, and the Chinaman starches and irons as usual. It was a narrow escape, however.

ROLL OF HONOR.—The following is the roll of honor in Bishop Whitaker's "School for Girls," for the month ending February 8, 1878: Jessie Kirkpatrick, 98.4; Mollie Grippen, 98.2; Minnie Miller, 97.6; Mary Rogers, 97.5; Laddie Hoole, 97.2; Lizzie Miller, 97.2; Luella Dalton, 96.8; Alice Galoway, 96.5.

MISS KATE A. SILL, Principal.

The Elko Independent explains that we were wrong in saying that it favored Rovers execution, and by the way there seems to be an extraordinary desire in some quarter for that hanging. One would think from this lack of mercy towards a defenseless man that every man in the State was related to Sharp.

BURGLARY.—Last Friday night two boys made an opening in the rear wall of the old Bank saloon, and breaking into Harvey Tompkins' cabinet, stole therefrom about $80 worth of coins and other valuables. Young Woodruff, a lad of some 15 summers, has been arrested and placed in jail.

SUPREME COURT.—The case of Julia A. Blandell et al., respondents, vs. Heister Stephens et al., appellants, came before the Supreme Court in Carson February 8th. R. M. Clarke argued the case for appellants and W. M. Boardman and T. E. Haydon, of Reno, for respondents. The case was then submitted.

BLACKSMITH SHOP TO LET.—Bunzel's old blacksmith shop on Plaza street, can be rented upon application to J. J. Becker, at the Sacramento saloon on Virginia street. See advertisement.

JUST ARRIVED.—800 pounds fresh candy, all kinds, warranted free from all injurious coloring. Call and see it at W. H. Holmes & Co's., two doors east of Postoffice. 2-9-1m.

R. E. Queen practical druggist and manufacturing chemist. All medicinal and toilet preparations made in my laboratory will be of first quality and sold at reasonable prices. Personal attention given to physicians' prescriptions.

REMOVAL.—Yankee Dodge has removed to the store formerly occupied by Misses Brown & Harney, where he will be pleased to see his friends and patrons. He will keep constantly on hand a general assortment of Yankee notions and fancy goods, and sell them cheaper than any other house in Reno. We will have an auction sale every Saturday evening. Be sure and give us a call before purchasing elsewhere. Don't forget the place, opposite the Reno Opera House, Virginia street.

REMOVAL NOTICE.—Osborn & Shoemaker, Druggists, inform their old patrons and the community generally, that they will, on the 1st day of February, move into the building occupied by J. N. Aquilino, one door west of their present stand.

WANTED.—One or two young ladies to learn Dressmaking. Apply at Mrs. Emerson's, Opposite Odd Fellows' Hall. 1-14-77

But words are things, and a small drop of ink falling, like dew, upon a thought, produces that which makes thousands, perhaps millions think.—Byron.

Mystery and innocence are not a kin.—Ballou.

Fate has no voice but the heart's impulses.—Schiller.

Early and provident fear is the mother of safety.—Burke.

Better be a nettle in the side of your friend than his echo.—Emerson.

Men lose their intellectual powers for want of exerting them.—Bolingbroke.

In conversation humor is more than wit, easiness more than knowledge.—Sir Wm. Temple.

The heart that is soonest awake to the flowers is always the first to be touched by the thorns.—Moore.

The natural cure of an ill administration in a popular or representative constitution is a change of men.—Hamilton.

Bashfulness and apathy are a tough husk, in which a delicate organization is protected from future ripening.—Emerson.

Man, without the protection of superior being, is secured for nothing that he enjoys, and uncertain of everything he hopes for.—Tillotson.

A man should never be afraid to own he has been wrong, which is but saying in other words that he is wiser to-day than he was yesterday.—Pope.

Happiness is in taste and not in thing; and it is by having what we love that we are happy, not by having what others find agreeable.—Rochefoucauld.

Man's use and function is to be the witness of the glory of God, and to advance that glory by his reasonable obedience and resultant happiness.—Ruskin.

The good opinion of honest men, friends to freedom and well wishers to mankind, wherever they may be born or happen to reside, is the only kind of reputation a wise man could ever desire.—Washington.

If things were once in this train—if virtue were established as necessary to reputation, and vice not only loaded with infamy, but made the infallible ruin of all men's pretensions—our duty would take root on our nature.—Swift.

When the Almighty himself condescends to address mankind in their own language, his meaning, luminous as it must be, is rendered dim and doubtful by the cloudy medium through which it is communicated.—Madison.

By understanding I mean that faculty whereby we are enabled to apprehend the objects of knowledge, general as well as particular, absent things as well as present, and to judge of their truth or falsehood, good or evil.—William.

The moral sense of conscience is as much a part of man as his leg or his arm. State a moral case to a ploughman and a professor. The former will decide as well if not better than the latter because he has not been led astray by artificial rules.—Jefferson.

WATCHES!! JEWELRY!!

ROMAINE GOLD.

EXTENSIVELY WORN IN PARIS, it was first discovered in 1870, by the celebrated French chemist, M. P. de Delage, who manufactured it into jewelry, and for five years sold it to the leading jewellers of Paris for solid gold. In 1875, when his secret became known, ten of the manufacturing jewellers established a stock company, with a capital of $10,000,000 for the purpose of manufacturing Romaine Gold Jewelry and Watches. With immense capital and the aid of improved machinery, they are enabled to produce all the latest patterns of jewelry at less than one-tenth the cost of solid gold, and of a quality and color which makes it impossible even for experts to detect it from the genuine.

We have secured the exclusive agency of the United States and Canada, for the sale of all goods manufactured from this metal, and in order to introduce them in the most speedy manner, have put up assorted sample lots as given below, which will sell at one-tenth the retail value until January 1st, 1878.
